Transcriber's Office

May 7, 1997

LB 229A, 263

pending is the vote on whether to suspend the at-large reading pursuant to Rule 6, Section 8. All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 36 ayes, 0 nays to dispense with Final Reading, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Mr. Clerk, please read the bill...or read the title.

CLERK: (Read title.)

SPEAKER WITHEM: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 263 pass? All of those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. As you are going through this period of contemplation on LB 263, let me announce that this will be the last bill we'll deal with, with Final Reading today. Obviously, the other bills will be dealt with at some other date, but this final...consent calendar Final Reading was scheduled for one hour and so we'll move on to the blue agenda as soon as this is completed. Let me announce that we do have some guests in the Legislature from Senator Robak's district. There are 21 third and fourth grade students from Christ Lutheran Church in Columbus, along with their teacher. (Read teacher's name.) Would you please stand and be recognized, please. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See page 1867 of the Legislative Journal.) 41 ayes, 0 nays, 2 present and not voting and 5 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: LB 263 does pass. This will conclude Final Reading for today. We will move to consideration of General File A bills. Mr. Clerk, LB 229A.

CLERK: Mr. President, 229A, a bill by Senator Wickersham, appropriates funds to implement the provisions of LB 229.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Wickersham, to open on your bill.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is a bill that is on Final Reading. It's perhaps a little bit late in the
